

MICKEY GUYTON

"..blazing vocals express pain, power, and perseverance."

– ASSOCIATED PRESS

"Take LeAnn Rimes' Top 40 sensibilities, Patsy Cline's gift for heart-tugging balladry, and Whitney Houston's massive pipes, and you might just capture the magic of this Texan powerhouse."

– ENTERTAINMENT WEEKLY

Releases

"I STILL PRAY"

Release Date: 11/4/22
Master Link | Visualizer

"HOW YOU LOVE SOMEONE"

Release Date: 10/7/22
Master Link | Official Video
Visualizer

"SOMETHIN' BOUT YOU"

Release Date: 8/26/22
Master Link | Visualizer

REMEMBER HER NAME

Debut Album
Release Date: 9/24/21
Master Link | Official Video

Highlights

1.2+ BILLION GLOBAL STREAMS

SUPER BOWL LV
NATIONAL ANTHEM PERFORMANCE

4X GRAMMY NOMINEE
FIRST BLACK ARTIST TO EARN A GRAMMY
NOMINATION FOR BEST COUNTRY ALBUM

MY KIND OF COUNTRY HOST ON APPLE TV+

TIME MAGAZINE'S 2022
BREAKTHROUGH ARTIST OF THE YEAR

ESPN ESPY AWARDS: TRIBUTE TO WOMEN PERFORMANCE

PBS' A CAPITOL FOURTH

CMT CROSSROADS WITH BLACK PUMAS
NOMINATED FOR A CMT AWARD

AMAZON MUSIC'S DOCUMENTARY
"FOR LOVE AND COUNTRY"

PEOPLE'S "15 WOMEN CHANGING THE MUSIC INDUSTRY TODAY"

THE ELLEN SHOW
PERFORMANCE & GUEST HOST

INSTYLE MAGAZINE'S "THE BADASS 50"

ORIGINS (AUDIBLE ORIGINAL SERIES)

GLOBAL CITIZEN FESTIVAL

SESAME STREET PERFORMANCE

ACM CO-HOST WITH KEITH URBAN

About Mickey

Mickey Guyton has represented America on its biggest stages, captivating viewers with the national anthem performance at the Super Bowl and hosting PBS's July 4th celebration from the Capitol Lawn. She became the first Black nominee for Best Country Album at the GRAMMYS in the award's history. Guyton's recently released songs "I Still Pray," "How You Love Someone" and "Somethin' Bout You" follow her critically acclaimed 2021 debut album

Remember Her Name.

MICKEYGUYTON.COM